

PC Based Token Display Caller – PushButton API

Import pushbutton.jar file on your java project then call following function with arguments

1) Next token number call function name : string display.next (void)

return: string

2) Repeat/Recall token number function name: string display.repeat(void)

return: string

3) Reset token number

function name: string display.reset(void)
return: string

